

Today, we face some overwhelming challenges.

Our ability to sustain the environment, our communities and our economies is an issue facing us all.

Design can ask questions, offer solutions and inspire change.
Will you partner with us to provoke and inspire?

Change starts now: it's time to take responsibility.

The Society for Responsible Design (SRD) is presenting a Graduate Design event called Change.

SRD Change 08 (formerly SRD ChangeX) is an annual exhibition of selected sustainable design projects from some of Sydney's top universities. It explores a range of issues of sustainability, environmental responsibility, social equity and community. The exhibition showcases compelling projects from a cross section of design fields: from built environments, products, textiles and communications. Change 08 embraces the contemporary issues for creative professionals, young designers, business and community members. Offering the opportunity to explore Responsible Design's potential in realising tangible solutions globally.

This year SRD Change 08 will be holding its primary exhibit at:

TAP Gallery - 278 Palmer Street, Darlinghurst, NSW 2010.
<http://www.tapgallery.org.au/>

The exhibition will run from 23rd - 28th September in the ground floor gallery space, with the opening night set for 6pm Tuesday 23rd September.

Organisers are now calling for corporate sponsors for the event, for more information or to receive your sponsorship pack please contact one of the sponsorship team:
